MORE INTENSIVE

EVANGELICAL EFFORT s the Thing Urged Upon Baptists by President Nicholson at State Con-

Nearly 400 Baptists from all parts of Connecticut were in Middletown Tues-lay for the 92d annual state convention.

The report of the treasurer, Charles Edward Prior, of Hartford, showed total receipts for the year from the churches of $7,911.90, the largest sum ever received from this source.

More intensive evangelical effort was urged by Edward K. Nicholson of Bridgeport in his address as president.

Mr. Nicholson was unable to be presented.

Mr. Nicholson was unable to be present, and his address was read by Rev. Edgar R. Hyde, pastor of the First Baptist church, where the sessions are being held.

President Nicholson called attention to the present prosperity of the church and warned his hearers that in such prosperity there was the danger that a essening of individual work might The decreasing tide of immigration he said, due to war conditions in Eu-rope offered opportunity for much more thorough evangelical work than heretofore among those immigrants who take up a residence in this state. He also advocated the singling out of certain localities for more intensive evangelical work. Rev. Frederick Lent of New Haven

Rcv. Frederick Lent of New Haven was elected president. Other officers elected were: Vice presidents, Charles P. Walker, New Haven, and Rev. Horace B. Sloat, Waterbury; secretary, Rev. A. B. Coats, Hartford; treasurer, Charles E. Prior, Hartford; auditor, C. Hadlai Hull, New London.

SUPREME COURT HAS FIVE CASES TO HEAR October Term Was Opened in This

City on Tuesday. With Chief Justice Prentice presiding and Associate Justices Thayer, Wheeler, Roraback, and Beach attending, the October term of the supreme court of errors was opened here on Tuesday morning. Rev. J. M. Endred Brown offered prayer before the first case was taken up.

James P. Andrews was the court reporter and Deputy Sheriff Herbert E. Draper was the court officer. There are five cases on the docket.

Over Reconveyance of Land.

The first case was entitled Oliver H. Rudd vs. William Rudd, alias Williams M. Chapel and wife. Judge Comstock began the opening agrument for the plaintiff and he was opposed by Attorney Charles V. Sames.

This is a contest over the possession of a farm in Preston occupied by Mr. Rudd. Hs is 72 and a pensioner of the Civil war. Mr. Chapel is employed in a light house near Fort Terry. He married Dora V. Rudd, the daughter of the plaintiff and the couple have six children. In April, 1911, the plaintiff wrote to his son-in-law to come to Norwich and the men met on Water street and Mr. Rudd said he was not feeling well and he wanted his son-in-law and daughter to have his property. They went to the office of the lawyer of Mr. Rudd and a deed was drawn up giving the form to the Chapels and Mr. Rudd retained a life interest in his farm. He asked the defendant not to have the deed recorded. At that time the Chapels were living at East Marion, Long Island.

In January, 1910, Mr. Rudd requested that the deed be recorded and Mr. Chapel compiled with his request and it was recorded in the office of the Preston town clerk. In November, 1911, Mr. Rudd asked that the property be reconveyed to him and this was refused and the matter got into the court.

The case was tried before Judge Over Reconveyange of Land.

got into the court.

The case was tried before Judge Bennett and he rendered judgment for the defondants and Mr. Rudd took an appeal to the supreme court.

Damages for Loss of Wife's Love. The case of Lucian M. Sheffield vs. Alva G. Beckwith was the second on the list. The latter lives in Old Saybrook and the former in New London. The plaintiff claimed Mr. Beckwith had won the affections of Mrs. Sheffield, and suit was brought for the sum of $5,000. A jury gave Mr. Sheffield a verdict for $1,750. A motion to set aside the verdict was denied. The jury brought in a verdict at first for $100 and the judge refused to accept it, and then they brought in a verdict for $1,750 and that was approved by Judge Bonnett.

Building Co. Case.

The case of James F. Fenton and others vs. the Fenton Building company is another on the list. It was an appeal by the Berlin Construction company, Hillhouse & Taylor of Willmantic, Casper K. Balley and Moriarty & Rafferty. Their claims against the bankrupt estate of the Fenton Building company amounted in the aggregate to about $22,000 and the parties named about $22,000 and the parties named aserted they had preferred claims, but Judge Shumway ruled otherwise and the matter went to the supreme court for adjudication. The printed pages in the case numbered 96. There are quite a number of lawyers in the case from out of town. Elevator Accident. The fourth is that of Loreta Roms against the Thames River Specialties company, in which the plaintiff sued for the loss of a leg in an elevator accider. The jury awarded the plaintiff a verdict of $1,500, which was set aside by Judge Greene, the appeal following. Wants Will Construed. The fifth case is that of J. J. committee. Hagan, the prosecutor continued, changed his testimony just before he took the witness stand in the Bell case, and there testified that he gave the money to a man at democratic headquarters. In view of this change of testimony, Rucker said he did not believe the evidence sufficient to convict Taggart, and for that reason he moved to dismiss the charge against Taggart.

When this motion was sustained by Judge Eichhorn, Prosecutor Rucker requested that the other cases be postponed until Dec. 1st to give his office time to clear up the criminal docket and to reorganize the election conspiracy cases, and this was granted.

The court then postponed passin sentence of James H. (Bud) Gibson and Ernest Roeder, who pleaded guilty and testified for the state, until Dec. 1. Similar action was taken in the caser of John W. Lee and Robert Board by James A. Collins, judge of the criminal court. Lee and Board pleaded guilty before Judge Collins before the defendants took a change of venue the defendants took a change of venu to Judge Eichhorn.

URIG ACID IN MEAT CLOGS THE KIDNEYS

Take a glass of Salts if your Back -Drink more water.

If you must have your meat every day, eat it, but flush your kidneys with salts occasionally, says a noted authority who tells us that meat forms uric acid which shinest paralyzes the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken, then you suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sours, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three time during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids, to cleanse the kidneys and flush off the body's urinous waste get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy here take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

ONE DOSE OF MAYR'S Wonderful Remedy Should Convince You That Your Suffering Is Unnecessary.

Indianapolis, Oct. 19.—The case afainst Thomas Taggart, democratic national committeeman for Indiana, charged with election conspiracy, was dismissed by Special Judge W. H. Elchhorn in criminal court today on the motion of Prosecutor A. J. Rucker. The cases of the more than one hundred other men who were indicted with Taggart and Mayor Joseph E. Bell were put over to Dec. 1. Mayor Bell, was acquitted by a jury last Wednesday after a trial lasting more than five weeks.

Prosecutor Rucker in moving to dismiss the case against Taggart stated that the testimony of witnesses in the Bell case affecting Taggart was much weaker than the testimony they gave before the grand jury. Paul Hagen, financial agent of a local brewing company, Rucker said, testified before the grand jury that he gave Taggart $7550 during the 1914 campaign which was not accounted for in the report of the treasurer of the democratic county committee. Hagan, the prosecutor continued, changed his testimony just before he took the witness stand in the

Fashion Fabrics

The styles are exacting but elever-the fabrics with which the style is developed are cleverer yet.

Georgette Crope, sheer and somi-transparent, is a pure silk weave as light and dainty as a butterfly's wing. Used in con-nection with heavier sliks and velvets the effect is most chaming. 40 inches wide and only $1.50 a yard. All the daytime and evening shades.

For the out-door woman Sport Suit of Corduroy In Havana, Marine, Doift, Moss, Petrograd, Salmon, Ivory or Black is most desirable. 27 Inches wide and the price is a dollar a yard.

Satin Radiant, Crope de Chine and Gros de Londre are all being featured just at present, and each in its way is both beauti-
